---------	--------------	----------------

The following groups are covered under this plan.

A. Mandatory Coverage – Coverage for the population of adults made newly eligible by the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (ACA) of 2010

42 U.S.C. 1396a
§1902(a)(10)(A)(i)(VIII)

1. Affordable Care Act Medicaid expansion population
 - a. Nondisabled adults under 65 years of age, not pregnant or entitled to benefits under other State Plan covered groups who are under 133% FPL and will be newly eligible for Medicaid starting in 2014.
 - b. Population is eligible contingent upon contributions to their POWER Account. Lack of payment of contributions makes the individual ineligible for coverage for 12 months.
 - i. Enrollees have 60 days to make missed payments before being terminated from the program.
 - ii. The 12 month ineligibility period does not apply if enrollees fail to make their first contribution. They may reapply and start making contributions as they wish.
 - c. Coverage commences on the first day of the month after the enrollee makes their first contribution.

*Agency that determines eligibility for coverage.
